जब परहित में कार्य होता है तो ईश्वर भी साथ देते हैं...

किसी का दर्द महसूस करना हमें एक समझदार इंसान बनाता है। यह दूसरों की भावनाओं की महत्वपूर्णता को समझने में मदद करता है और हमें उनके साथ सहयोग करने की क्षमता प्रदान करता है। जब हम किसी के दर्द और दुख को समझते हैं, तो हम उनके साथ सहानुभूति और समर्थन दिखा सकते हैं, जिससे उन्हें अकेलापन की भावना कम होती है। और आज की इस भाग दौड़ की ज़िन्दगी में कोई हमारा साथ उस समय देता है जब हमें वास्तव में जरूरत होती है तो उस इंसान के प्रति मन श्रद्धा से भर जाता है।

किसी की सहायता करना एक क्षमता प्रदान करता है क्योंकि हम अपने आस-पास के लोगों की जीवन में होने वाले समस्याओं को समझते हैं और उन्हें सहायता प्रदान करने के तरीके ढूँढने का प्रयास करते हैं। यह सामाजिक सहयोग की भावना को बढ़ावा देता है और हमें एक बेहतर समाज की दिशा में काम करने के लिए प्रोत्साहित करता है। किसी के दर्द को महसूस करना हमें एक अधिक सहानुभूति से भरपूर और उदार व्यक्ति बनाता है और हमारे समाज में सदुणों का

प्रचार करता है। दूसरों के दर्द को महसूस करना हमारे आत्म-विकास और सामाजिक संबंधों को मजबूती देने में मदद कर सकता है। यह हमें अधिक सहानुभूति और समर्पण वाला इंसान बनने में सहायक होता है, जो किसी भी समाज में महत्वपूर्ण है। एक उम्र गुजर जाने के बाद ऐसा महसूस होने लगता है कि जीवन ईश्वर ने जो कार्य क्षमता दी है उसका उपयोग केवल स्वयं के लिए ना हो कर दूसरों की सहायता के लिए भी होना चाहिए और ये भाव मन में आते ही हम संवेदनशील इंसान बनने लगते हैं और समाज में सहयोग और सहानुभूति का संकेत देने का कार्य करने लगते हैं।

ये विचार मेरे मन में अम्मा को बहुत करीब से देखने के बाद आए जिस तरह उन्होंने अपने जीवन को बहुत छोटी उम्र से ही जन सेवा में लगा दिया था हर इंसान को उनके जीवन से प्रेरणा लेनी चाहिए क्योंकि जब परहित में कार्य होता है तो ईश्वर भी साथ देते हैं।

Amma — Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi

Many people wonder how a little girl from a simple South Indian village came to be known throughout the world as “Amma, the Mother of All.” Motherhood, in its ultimate sense, has nothing to do with bearing a child, but with love, compassion and selflessness. It lies in totally giving one’s self to others.

If we look at Amma’s life, this is what we see—someone who has offered her every thought, word and deed for the benefit of others. Giving is the essence. It’s just that when the homeless come crying for shelter and Amma gives them a house, we call her a “humanitarian.” And when the sorrowful come crying for emotional solace and she gives them love, we call her a “mother.” And when those thirsty for spiritual knowledge come earnestly seeking and she gives them wisdom, we call her a “guru.” This attitude of selflessly serving all creation, knowing others to be extensions of one's own self, Amma refers to as vishwa matrutvam—universal motherhood. And it is to this pinnacle of human existence that Amma is trying to awaken the world through her life, teachings and darshan [divine embrace].

An embodiment of Love & Compassion, Insight and Inspiration, Wisdom & Action, Laughter and Light... Universal Motherhood which accepts and embraces everything, a life of pure giving and celebration.

Many people wonder how a little girl from a simple South Indian village came to be known throughout the world as “Amma, the Mother of All.” Motherhood, in its ultimate sense, has nothing to do with bearing a child, but with love, compassion and selflessness. It lies in totally giving one's self to others.

If we look at Amma's life, this is what we see—someone who has offered her every thought, word and deed for the benefit of others. Giving is the essence. It's just that when the homeless come crying for shelter and Amma gives them a house, we call her a “humanitarian.” And when the sorrowful come crying for emotional solace and she gives them love, we call her a “mother.” And when those thirsty for spiritual knowledge come earnestly seeking and she gives them wisdom, we call her a “guru.” This attitude of selflessly serving all creation, knowing others to be extensions of one's own self, Amma refers to as vishwa matrutvam—universal motherhood. And it is to this pinnacle of human existence that Amma is trying to awaken the world through her life, teachings and darshan [divine embrace].

Questions about the nature of the soul, the universe and God; about dharma, love and family life; about meditation and other spiritual practices... Amma has been clearing the doubts of sincere seekers on such subtle subjects since her youth. She never had a guru nor studied the Vedas, yet she speaks on the truths expressed within the scriptures with wisdom, clarity and true insight. Hers is not academic knowledge, but the knowledge of one who is ever-established in the Ultimate Reality. It is for this reason that Amma's simple childhood home has become the spiritual home to thousands—an ashram where aspirants from around the world reside in order to imbibe Amma's wisdom and realize the Truth that is their real nature. The seeker is instructed as per his level—from the child to the sannyasi [monk].

My Dream: A vision of a world in which women and men progress together, a world in which all men respect the fact that, like the two wings of a bird, women and men are of equal value.

—Amma

Seeing the whole world as an extension of her own self, Amma is ever ready to forego her own body's needs in order to bring a smile to someone's face, wipe their tears or to simply listen to their sorrows. The sweet manner in which she laughs and jokes with people, shares in their success and failure has endeared millions to her throughout the world. In fact, many see Amma as their lifelong confidant and friend. Giving darshan in this manner is verily Amma's life—day after day, week after week, year after year. In fact, Amma has been doing so since she was just 17 years old, and she has been known to sit embracing people continuously for as long as 22 hours.

Amma is able to make such a personal sacrifice because in her arms people feel safe, feel comforted, loved, feel that finally, they've found someone who knows them through and through. And with that feeling, they get the strength to move forward in life, and this, Amma feels, is infinitely more important than her physical needs. Be they young or old, sick or healthy, rich or poor—everyone receives the same unconditional love. Amma turns no one away. The atheist has just as much a place with Amma as the devotee.

My Desire: Everyone in the world should be able to sleep without fear, at least for one night. Everyone should be able to eat to his fill, at least for one day. There should be at least one day when hospitals see no one admitted due to violence.

—Amma

For Amma, Advaita [non-dualism] is not a mere philosophy, but something to be lived. As such, Amma's every thought, word and deed resound with that greatest of truths: Everything within and without is divine. Accordingly, Amma oversees a massive matrix of humanitarian activities. Hospitals for the sick, homes for the homeless, disaster relief, orphanages, hospices, free pensions, suicide-prevention, employment programs... the list is endless.

Influenced by Amma's example and experiencing her pure love, thousands upon thousands of people from around the world have been inspired to take up a life of service—giving whatever time or money they can spare in order to help others. It is the seed of love Amma has planted within them beginning to sprout that has brought this about. This has been Amma's vision from the beginning. Amma says, “In today's world, people experience two types of poverty: the poverty caused by lack of food, clothing and shelter, and the poverty caused by lack of love and compassion. Of these two, the second type needs to be considered first—because, if we have love and compassion in our hearts, then we will wholeheartedly serve those who suffer from lack of food, clothing and shelter.”

This is the secret behind the success of Amma's charitable mission and how its expansion seems to be constant and without end. And the brilliance of Amma's grand scheme is that not only are the downtrodden uplifted but also the volunteers, as the selflessness of their actions purifies their minds, helping them to gradually progress along the spiritual path. Amma's charitable social services cross all barriers of nationality, race, caste and religion, and have drawn the attention of the world community. In 2005, Amma's organization, the Mata Amritanandamayi Math, was given special consultative status by the United Nations.

It's better to get worn out than rust away.

—Amma

Humanitarian, Mother, Friend, Guru, God...people see her differently. Amma has offered herself to the world. In reality, Amma is beyond all such roles, knowing her true nature to be the true nature of us all—the blissful divine consciousness that pervades this universe. But out of her infinite compassion, Amma comes down to the level of whoever is standing before her—the poor, the lonely, the seeker—in order to give what is desired, what is needed. It was for this purpose alone that Amma was born and for this alone that Amma lives today. In fact, Amma has said that she wishes to be lovingly caressing someone, consoling them and wiping their tears even when she breathes her last.

C20 Summit Inaugurated in Jaipur

The Summit of Civil 20 (C20), one of the official Engagement Groups of the G20, has been inaugurated at Jaipur. More than 700 delegates from India and around the world are participating in the three-day event.

Dignitaries present during the inaugural ceremony included Shri Rajnath Singh, Hon'ble Minister of Defence, Govt. of India; Smt. Shakuntala Rawat, Hon'ble Minister of Industry, State Enterprises & Devasthan, Govt. of Rajasthan; Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi, Chair, C20; Sri M, Core Committee Member, C20; Shri Vijay Nambiar, Sherpa C20 India, Former UN Secretary General's Special Advisor on Myanmar; and H.E. Mr. Federico Salas Lotfe, Ambassador, Embassy of Mexico; Swami Amritaswarupananda Puri, Troika, C20 & Vice Chairman Mata Amritanandamayi Math; Ms. Nivedita Bhide, C20 Core Committee; Shri Chandra Prakash Joshi, Member of Parliament; Sri Joginder Singh Awana, MLA; Shombi Sharp, UN Resident Coordinator; Dr. Vinay Sahasrabuddhe, Sous-sherpa C20 India; Shri Ah Maftuchan, Sherpa C20, Indonesia; Shri Niklaus Gugher, Member of the National Council (Switzerland); and Shri Abhay Thakur, G20 Sous Sherpa.

The main highlights of the Jaipur C20 summit is the release of the C20 Policy Pack and the C20 Communique — C20's policy recommendations developed by 16 Working Groups after extensive discussions with civil-society organisations and policymakers worldwide. These important documents will be handed over to the G20 Secretariat.

Addressing the delegates at the inaugural program, Shri Rajnath Singh, Hon'ble Minister of Defence, Govt. of India, said: "India assuming the presidency of G20 has presented us a historic opportunity to address global challenges through discussion and dialogue. Hopefully, we can also come up with a response to them. Based on the philosophy of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam and worshipping various manifestations of nature, the Indian civilization doesn't believe in 'othering' anyone based on parameters like race or religion. We have never seen others as different from ourselves. The ancient Indian concept of 'as is the microcosm, so is the macrocosm' has great significance in a world facing drastic climate change and environmental degradation due to mankind's insatiable greed. The approach of 'one world, one family' provides a much better way to live our lives and design our socio-economic structures."

Shri Rajnath Singh added: "Civil society organizations have been an intrinsic part of Indian history for thousands of years. They played a significant role in shaping the socio-cultural and political fabric of our society. While kings upheld the rule of law or dharma, civil society groups were instrumental in operationalizing its ideals in the society. Structures like Buddhist Sanghas, merchant guilds, temples and ashrams fostered a sense of unity and harmony among people and participated in social affairs, assisting the king in the business of governance. Civil society organizations are essential for functioning of a democracy as they enable citizens to engage in dialogue and cooperative efforts to achieve national objectives. They are not antithetical but complementary to the state apparatus. Many of the Indian Government's landmark socio-economic initiatives have been supported by their herculean efforts.”

Shri Rajnath Singh added: “There is a healthy growth of civil society organizations across the globe, and they are positively impacting policy making in various areas. Even though they complement the government, the functioning of the two is vastly different. The Government apparatus is more rigidly organized and institutionalized. It cannot act in a hasty manner on novel, untested ideas, otherwise chaos and instability may injure the social wellbeing. This is where civil society groups can play a significant role due to their fluid, informal and nimble-footed structures which provide a huge scope for new ideas and processes to play out in the society. Civil society organizations act as incubators for new practices which can be scaled up from the micro to macro level by the Government. We have many examples in this regard like the provision of mid-day meal to school students.”

He added: “Comparative advantages of civil society groups and traditional government structures can be harnessed for the overall progress of the society. The former can act as force multipliers for the government. Their efforts for the betterment of the vulnerable groups have significantly altered the social and economic landscape of India in a very positive measure. There is no better example of this than Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi herself.”

Said Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi, Chair, C20: “On this momentous occasion, we, the C20 team—with all the 16 Working Groups—feel happy and content because we know we have done our part with utmost sincerity, love, and dedication. The team worked day-in/day-out to explore, gather the necessary information, research, polish, and finetune the grassroots-level problems of people. We conducted hundreds of conferences and events to create the much-needed awareness. A total of 200,000 people from around the world participated in our online, hybrid, and physical discussions, seminars, and conferences. Perhaps, C20 India can claim credit for bringing in the largest number of participants and conferences in the history of C20 since its inception 10 years ago. Together with all the 16 Working Groups, we were able to create awareness about the need to embrace a more compassionate approach in all areas of life and were able to effortlessly incorporate the aspect of compassion into all its activities.”

Said Shri Vijay Nambiar, Sherpa C20 India, Former UN Secretary General's Special Advisor on Myanmar: “During the past eight months, more than 1,000 meetings have been held across 60 cities in India and abroad under the aegis of C20, attended by over 184,000 people covering 74 nationalities. The 16 Working Groups of C20 have proposed a wide array of policy recommendations on each of their thematic areas. They have also come up with specific examples of successful work that has already been done by civil-society organisations in each area of focus which could be replicated elsewhere in the world.”

He added: “Civil society organizations are both the bridge and the moral compass that transcend the state and prevent it from atomizing society. They enhance public accountability by making the state more responsive with more inclusive development policies through building a larger consensus on social goals. India has been highlighting the major issues facing the global community in the present fragile global environment. The C20 has also been playing a big role in this direction. The civil society calls on the UN and the G20 to take bold action, including through substantial financial commitments, to help achieve the critical Sustainable Development Goals. Civil society around the world should have sufficient space to play a fitting role in the implementation of this agenda.”

The G20 (Group of 20) is a forum comprising 19 countries and the European Union. It works to address major issues related to the global economy. C20 provides a platform for Civil Society Organizations (CSO) around the world to voice people's aspirations to the world leaders in G20.

Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi, is the Chair of C20.

World must embrace ancient Indian traditions of nature conservation, says Shri Kalraj Mishra, Hon'ble Governor, Rajasthan, as C20 Summit concludes in Jaipur

The three-day Final Summit of Civil20 (C20), an official Engagement Group of G20, concluded at Jaipur with presentation of the C20 Communique, a grassroots survey and policy recommendations developed by its 16 Working Groups. These important documents were presented to the G20 Secretariat and representatives of G20 Brazil at the Summit.

Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi, Chair, C20 India, also officially handed over the leadership of C20 to Brazil after successful conclusion of C20 India. More than 800 delegates were present at the event, including civil society organizations from around the globe, distinguished experts from renowned institutions, and G20 officials.

Prominent dignitaries attended the valedictory function including Shri Kalraj Mishra, Hon'ble Governor, Rajasthan; Smt. Vasundhara Raje, Vice President, BJP; Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi, Chair, C20; Shri Vijay Nambiar, Sherpa C20 India; Sri M, Core Committee Member, C20; Swami Amritaswarupananda Puri, Troika, C20 & Vice Chairman, Mata Amritanandamayi Math; Shri Athayde Motta, Executive Director, Abong; and Élisabeth Moreno, ex-Minister Delegate in France for Equality Between Women & Men, Diversity & Equal Opportunities.

Said Shri Kalraj Mishra, Hon'ble Governor, Rajasthan: “As we focus on the needs of economic and social development, it is also necessary to pay attention to environmental conservation. As the world makes efforts to tackle the challenges of climate change, we need to look back at Indian culture which has a tradition of worshiping trees and connecting them with the divine. We have to embrace our ancient traditions of nature conservation and promoting awareness about these for future development. This work should be carried out on a large scale.”

Shri Kalraj Mishra added: “Niti Aayog and the United Nations are working on a framework for continuous development and cooperation in India. It is important that our foundation for this is based on four strategic pillars of People, Prosperity, Planet and Participation. These pillars are interconnected and focus on six result areas: Health & Wellbeing; Nutrition & Food Security; Quality Education; Economic Development & Decent Work; Environmental Sustainability, Climate & Resilience; and Empowerment of People, Communities, & Institutions. It is necessary to advance these foundations and targeted outcomes under Civil-20.”

Shri Kalraj Mishra said: “Civil society organisations can play a huge role in shaping India's development plans and policies according to the aspirations of the common people. They can help bridge the gap between large-scale initiatives and their practical implementation for the benefit of the people and reducing inequality. There is still much to be done in addressing the challenges of gender inequality, continuous development, climate change and environmental balance. We must work on integrating our rich cultural traditions related to environmental conservation into modern practices. We must learn from our traditions of tree worship and nature conservation. We must connect the modern generation with the traditions of love and care for animals within the framework of environmental balance. We have to focus on involving the younger generation in the development of skills and values that align with Indian culture.”

Smt. Vasundhara Raje, Vice President, BJP and ex-Chief Minister of Rajasthan, said: "The COVID pandemic was a testament to both the unpreparedness of nation states and the resilience of humanity. Together, governments, civil society, and science successfully combated the disease and vaccinated majority of the adult population. The spirit of cooperative federalism flourished. However, amidst all our triumphs, we must heed the warning from Mother Nature, as our relentless pursuit of physical comfort is leading to reckless depletion of natural wealth. Our thirst for energy poses a grave threat to the very planet that sustains us.”

She added, “At this moment in history, we face challenges of our own making and must accept collective responsibility. All cultures and nations must unite to reduce demands on scarce resources, prioritize reuse, and embrace recycling to avert the dire future of oblivion. As representatives of civil society, we must lead the charge in advocating sustainable practices, conservation, and renewable energy. We must ensure that extreme climates do not disproportionately harm the most vulnerable among us. To achieve ecological and financial justice, we must engage in inclusive development processes that uphold principles of gender equality. Collaboration between governments and civil society is essential to effectively address these critical issues.”

Said Swami Amritaswarupananda Puri, Troika, C20 & Vice Chairman, Mata Amritanandamayi Math: “Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi served as our sole inspiration and guiding light for the remarkable success of C20 in India. This was possible only because of her divine leadership and guidance. As we draw the final curtains on the C20 final summit, we thank all the people and organizations whose unwavering commitment and collective support made this possible. A special word of thanks to civil society organizations for their commitment for promoting social justice, human rights, and sustainable development. Together, as global community, we have taken a step forward in building a more equitable, sustainable and compassionate world as we leave this C20 Summit with new ideas and renewed determination. But let us remember that our work has only just begun.”

The 16 Working Groups of C20 have proposed a wide array of policy recommendations on each of their thematic areas. They have also come up with specific examples of successful work that has already been done by civil society organizations in each area of focus which could be replicated elsewhere in the world.

The Civil20 Summit serves as a platform for experts, advocates, and policymakers to convene, fostering idea exchange and presenting actionable policy recommendations to the G20. It concentrates on critical global issues to shape and influence policies that advance sustainable development, inclusivity, and a better future for all.

Amma, Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi, is the Chair of C20.

These profound lines inspire introspection, growth, and a relentless pursuit of knowledge, reminding one of the transformative potential that lies within each performance and discussion held within the auditorium's walls.

In the exceptional green rooms, performers and production teams can prepare themselves behind the scenes, transforming into a unified ensemble before they step onto the stage. It is within these green rooms that dreams take flight and where magic truly comes alive.

For those fortunate enough to secure a spot in the balcony, a panoramic view of the stage and the seating area awaits. Perched high above the main floor, the balcony offers a unique vantage point, allowing spectators to witness performances and events with a sense of grandeur. The architectural charm of the auditorium is further enhanced by decorative lighting, creating an atmosphere of elegance and sophistication.

Miami

48 hours in Miami, the Latin American edition

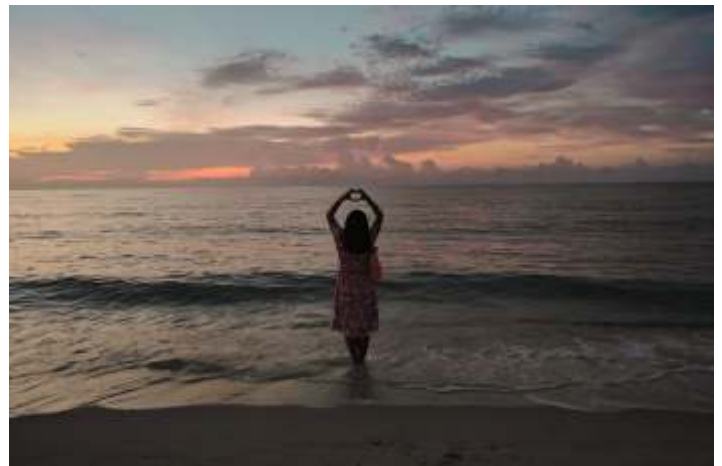

> Janki Parwal

It was a blessing in disguise during my trip of USA when my flight got cancelled and consequently the trip was postponed for two days in Miami, so I decided to make the most of it and explored Miami in the best possible way.

My mind was always flooded with the images of sun filled days and cocktail hours whenever I thought of Miami. Known as the "magic city", Miami boasts a unique and exciting mix of hip urban culture, laid back seaside vibes and Latin and US traditions. Miami is a hotspot to pause reality and indulge in some fun in the sun. Combining world class beaches, exotic night life and mouthwatering food, Miami won't disappoint. So here are 5 things I did in Miami.

South beach

The famous stretch of white sand with the soft swell of the sea caressing the edge of the place to be right until the sun goes down. South beach is the place to people watch as beachgoers enjoy outdoor activities and bask in the sun, while fitness fanatics use the public gym. Bathe under the Florida sun and admiring the classic lifeguard's tower. Interestingly this beach is for occasions, pet friendly, and hosts parties when the sun goes down. Watching the dawn from this beach was a soul soothing experience as the sky looked staggeringly beautiful adorned in pink and red hues.

Miami is a party central

Like everything in this city, I found night out in Miami is an experience that is distinctly Latin with American flavors of course. Beaches are home to some of the best night clubs in the world with biggest DJs playing sets that are guaranteed to get you dancing on the floor. Traditional urban music can be found in the bars all over the city. In mid town and whnwood, you will find you are full of trendy, hipster hangouts while Downtown Miami is a home to city's oldest bars.

Ocean drive

Ocean drive is one of the first places in Miami that anyone travelling to Miami must explore. This is a busy and a bustling street located right next to Miami Beach. Studded along this street are a series of bars, cafes, restaurants and shopping malls and always crowded with tourists especially at night. I was looking for some Miami fun so made my way to Ocean Drive to see the hotels lining the water representing Miami's modern architecture. Ocean drive is the most favored stretch of the road in Miami Beach and is great way to soak up in the atmosphere. Whether its on a walking tour, or on a bike just enjoy the palm line street pocked with restaurants and bars which are waiting to explode after dark. So this was the place where i sat and admired the scenery surrounded by blue skies and Art deco buildings with Latin music floating through the air.

A foodie paradise

Influenced by its Latin /Caribbean culture, Miami's diverse tastes offers cultural melting pot of cuisines from the Caribbean ,Latin America and South America..In Miami, you can eat the most scrumptious Latin American cuisine every night of the week. You will get to taste the best Cuban dishes .Cuban coffee was something which is a must try, i personally loved this type of coffee. If you are keen to tantalize your taste buds in traditional cuisine from across the Caribbean and Latin America, dishes you thought are given a twist distinctive to particular nations. Empasadas for example will vary depending on whether you head to a Colombian, Ecuadorian ,Argentinian or Puerto Rican restaurant. You can check out restaurants like Bakan,BND burger, Sugarcane ,Sonny's and discover a glimpse of Miami's food scene. However don't forget to try local dishes like Key lime cake, Cuban sandwich and Arepas.

Key west

Laid back,free spirited ,artistic,quirky and scenic ,Key west is one of the most unique places in the United States where i found my own slice of Miami calm..To soak ourselves in the mesmerizing laid back ocean vibes we hired a convertible car and drove to Key west, the southernmost point in the continental United states. From Miami .It was a one day excursion laced with a beautiful coastal scenic drive with 34 islands, 42 bridges coming along the way including the famous seven mile bridge .However adventure junkies can indulge in activities like snorkelling,parasailing,glass bottom tour. On the way we relaxed on the idyllic beaches studded with white sand and coconut trees which soothed my tired soul.

The city holds some of the best museums and galleries. We explored the Duval Street which was a popular destination on the island with wide varieties of shops, art galleries, and street side stuffs too. Many of the buildings on the street were historical too adding some extra charm to you shopping experience. To satiate ourselves with delightful meal we entered Cafe restaurant which was veg and vegan .This place was quirky and welcoming with well crafted menu. You must try Odon noodle ,Cuban coffee and Key lime cake here. And don't forget to take a photo at southernmost Point Bay, which is a block away. It's a colorful landmark which shows mile 0which represents the southernmost point in the continental US the lowest latitude land of contiguous North American states.

So if you looking for some relaxed and a laid back holiday where you can chill around on the mesmerizing white sand ,indulge your senses in the tranquility of the island and breathe some cleanest air in the urban atmosphere and soak into the serene beauty of the sea. You can contemplate Miami for your next holidays and create enduring memories to this most exciting city of United States.

कुछ आप करें, कुछ होने दें

पति-पत्नी, माता-पिता, बच्चे और अन्य रिश्तेदार (मित्र)। ये चार नाते मिलकर मोटे तौर पर परिवार बनता है। यदि आप परिवार के स्वास्थ्य को जानना चाहें, फैमिली वेलनेस को समझना चाहें तो थोड़ा इन पर विचार करना होगा। माता-पिता नाम की संस्था कभी भारत के घरों की विशेषता थी। लेकिन, भारतीय संस्कृति की यह धरोहर अब धीरे-धीरे कर टूट रही है, बिखरती जा रही है। न चाहते हुए भी भारतीय घरों में पति-पत्नी और माता-पिता नाम की संस्था की पहचान ही बदल गई। पति-पत्नी के रिश्ते पर गौर करें तो पाते हैं इन दिनों इस रिश्ते के भी मायने बदल गए। पहले अन्य रिश्तेदार, सगे-संबंधी एक अलग ही भूमिका में होते थे। लेकिन, अब उनकी परिभाषा भी बदल गई। काम-धंधे, नौकरी के कारण लोग दूर जाकर बसने लगे। तो वहां उनका जो फ्रेंड सर्कल, जो ग्रुप बना, वे रिश्तेदारों से ज्यादा निकट और महत्वपूर्ण हो गए। फिर बारी आती है संतान की। संतानों को तो आजकल ऐसे पाला जा रहा है कि माता-पिता उन्हीं पर बहुत अधिक फोकस हो गए। इसके बाद भी अधिकांश अभिभावक संतानों को लेकर परेशान हैं, बेचैन हैं। आर्ट ऑफ पेरेंटिंग यानी लालन-पालन की कला चैलेंज-सी हो गई। आज बच्चों का लालन-पालन कर उन्हें योग्य बनाना हर माता-पिता के लिए बड़ी चुनौती है। फिर भी ये चार चीजें, ये चार रिश्ते मिलकर परिवार बनाते हैं। रामायण में एक एक बहुत महत्वपूर्ण पंक्ति आई है- 'होइहि सोइ जो राम रचि राखा।। (राचमा बाकां/5114) इसका मतलब है जीवन में हमारे चाहने, न चाहने से कुछ नहीं होता। होता वही है जो ईश्वर चाहता है। लाख सोच लें कि हम ऐसा कर लेंगे, हमारे साथ ऐसा हो जाए, वैसा नहीं हो। लेकिन, ऐसा संभव नहीं। अयोध्या कांड इसका उदाहरण है। दशरथ जी ने तय किया राम को राजा बना दिया जाए। पर नहीं बना सके। लक्ष्मण जी ने भरत जी के बारे में गलत सोचा कि सेना के साथ हम पर आक्रमण करने आ रहे हैं, पर उल्टा निकला। भरत जब ननिहाल से आ गए और श्री राम को लेने गए तो उन्होंने सोचा था किसी भी तरह से रामजी को मना लूंगा, उन्हें वापस लेकर आ जाऊंगा, लेकिन खाली हाथ लौटना पड़ा। श्री राम नहीं आए। भरत और अयोध्या वासियों के जाने के बाद रामजी ने सोचा अब मैं यहीं चित्रकूट में रहूंगा, लेकिन नहीं रह सके। छोड़कर पंचवटी जाना पड़ा। बस, यही है 'होइहि सोइ जो राम रचि राखा'।

मेक योर बेड

विलियम एच. मैकरेवन

मंजुल पब्लिशिंग हाउस, द्वितीय तल, उषा प्रीत कॉम्प्लेक्स, 42, मालवीय नगर, भोपाल-462 003 | हिंदी संस्करण, 2023 | पेपरबैक, पृ. 106 | मूल्य- 199.00

आप भी बदल सकते हैं अपना जीवन!

17 मई, 2014 को एडमिरल विलियम एच. मैकरेवन ने टेक्सास यूनिवर्सिटी के स्नातक के विद्यार्थियों को सम्बोधित करते हुए जो जीवन-सूत्र दिए वे ही इस किताब का मूल हैं। असल में वे छोटी-छोटी बातें ही होती हैं जिनका खयाल रखकर हम अपने जीवन की दिशा को बदल सकते हैं। इस किताब में एडमिरल मैकरेवन ने 'अगर आप दुनिया बदलना चाहते हैं तो' कहते हुए जो सूत्र दिए हैं वे हैं- अपना बिस्तर ठीक करके शुरुआत कीजिए, अपनी मदद करने के लिए किसी को तलाशिए, किसी भी इंसान का मूल्यांकन उसके दिल के आकार से कीजिए, चीनी कुकी बनना छोड़ें और आगे बढ़ें, सर्कस से मत डरिए, बाधा का मुकाबला एकदम सामने से कीजिए, शार्को से डरकर पीछे मत हटिए, सबसे बुरे समय में सर्वश्रेष्ठ बने रहिए, जब गले तक कीचड़ में धंसे हों तो गाना शुरू कर दीजिए, और घण्टी कभी भी मत बजाइए। लेकिन इन सूत्रों को पढ़कर आप इस किताब के जादू से परिचित नहीं हो सकते। लेखक ने छोटे-छोटे जीवन प्रसंगों का सहारा लेकर इन सूत्रों में जो प्राण प्रतिष्ठा की है वही इस किताब को मूल्यवान बनाती है। असल में इस तरह की किताबों में विषय वस्तु के रूप में नया कुछ नहीं होता है। नया होता है उन्हें प्रस्तुत करने का तरीका। और इस मामले में यह किताब वाकई बहुत उम्दा है। महेंद्र नारायण सिंह यादव का अनुवाद भी बहुत सहज है।

एक अनूठे व्यंग्यकार का शानदार सृजन

इन दिनों हिंदी में व्यंग्य खूब लिखा जा रहा है। शायद हमारा जीवन ही ऐसा हो चला है कि लेखक के पास उस पर व्यंग्य करने के सिवा कोई विकल्प नहीं बचा है। देखने की बात यह है कि किसी व्यंग्यकार की नज़र किन-किन कोनों तक पहुंचती है और वह व्यंग्य करने के लिए किन-किन उपकरणों का और कितना सार्थक प्रयोग करता है। इस लिहाज़ से निस्संकोच कहा जा सकता है कि श्री प्रभात गोस्वामी हिंदी के प्रथम पंक्ति के व्यंग्यकार हैं। अपने चौथे व्यंग्य संग्रह में वे ऐसे बहुत सारे मुद्दे उठाते हैं जो अब तक व्यंग्यकारों की नज़र से ओझल रहे थे। असल में वे घिसे-पिटे मुद्दों को छोड़कर ही लिखते हैं। एक सक्रिय मीडिया कर्मी होने के कारण प्रशासन की अनजानी गलियों और रीति-नीति से वे भली भांति परिचित हैं और उनका यह परिचय उनके व्यंग्य लेखन को प्रामाणिकता प्रदान करता है। पुस्तक का शीर्षक लेख अपने नए अंदाज़ से आपको प्रभावित करता है तो अनेक लेखों के शीर्षक अपनी साहित्यिक सुवास से मंत्र मुग्ध करते हैं। प्रभात जी मीठी मार करने वाले व्यंग्यकारों में अग्रणी हैं। प्रभात गोस्वामी के इन लेखों में आपको एक साथ रवींद्र नाथ त्यागी, शरद जोशी और हरिशंकर परसाई का स्वाद मिलता है। इस संकलन के लिए उन्हें बधाई!

समय की शिला पर

हरिशंकर शर्मा

दीपक प्रकाशन, चौड़ा रास्ता, जयपुर

संस्करण 2023 | सजिल्द. पृ. 128, मूल्य ₹ 395.00

वे साहित्य की विरासत के रक्षक हैं!

श्री हरिशंकर शर्मा हिंदी के एक ऐसे साहित्यकार हैं जो आपाधापी के इस समय में भी तमाम राग द्वेषों से मुक्त रहकर नितांत निस्पृह भाव से साहित्य सेवा में रत हैं। उम्र के सात दशक जी चुके शर्मा जी 'जो घर फूँके आपने' शैली में साहित्य की सेवा करते हैं। बिना किसी लाभ या पुरस्कार-प्रतिष्ठा की परवाह किए वे अहर्निश साहित्य सेवा में रत रहते हैं। पण्डित राधेश्याम शर्मा कथावाचक के अवदान को सामने लाने और उसे डॉक्यूमेंट करने के मामले में शर्मा जी का योगदान अप्रतिम है। हाल में आई उनकी किताब 'समय की शिला पर' के सारे 23 लेख हिंदी के कुछ जाने-माने और कुछ महत्वपूर्ण किन्तु अलक्षित रह गए रचनाकारों के सृजन के कुछ खास पक्षों को सामने लाते हैं। यहां प्रेमचंद, अज्ञेय, निरंकर देव सेवक, राधेश्याम शर्मा कथावाचक, धर्मवीर भारती और हेतु भारद्वाज जैसे सुपरिचित नामों के साथ-साथ मधु दीक्षित, सुधा तिवारी, हरिशंकर झण्डई, दिलजीत दिव्यांशु, लवलेश दत्त, सुरेश बाबू मिश्रा जैसे अपेक्षाकृत अल्प ज्ञात किन्तु महत्वपूर्ण रचनाकारों के सृजन पर सहृदयतापूर्वक विचार किया गया है।
